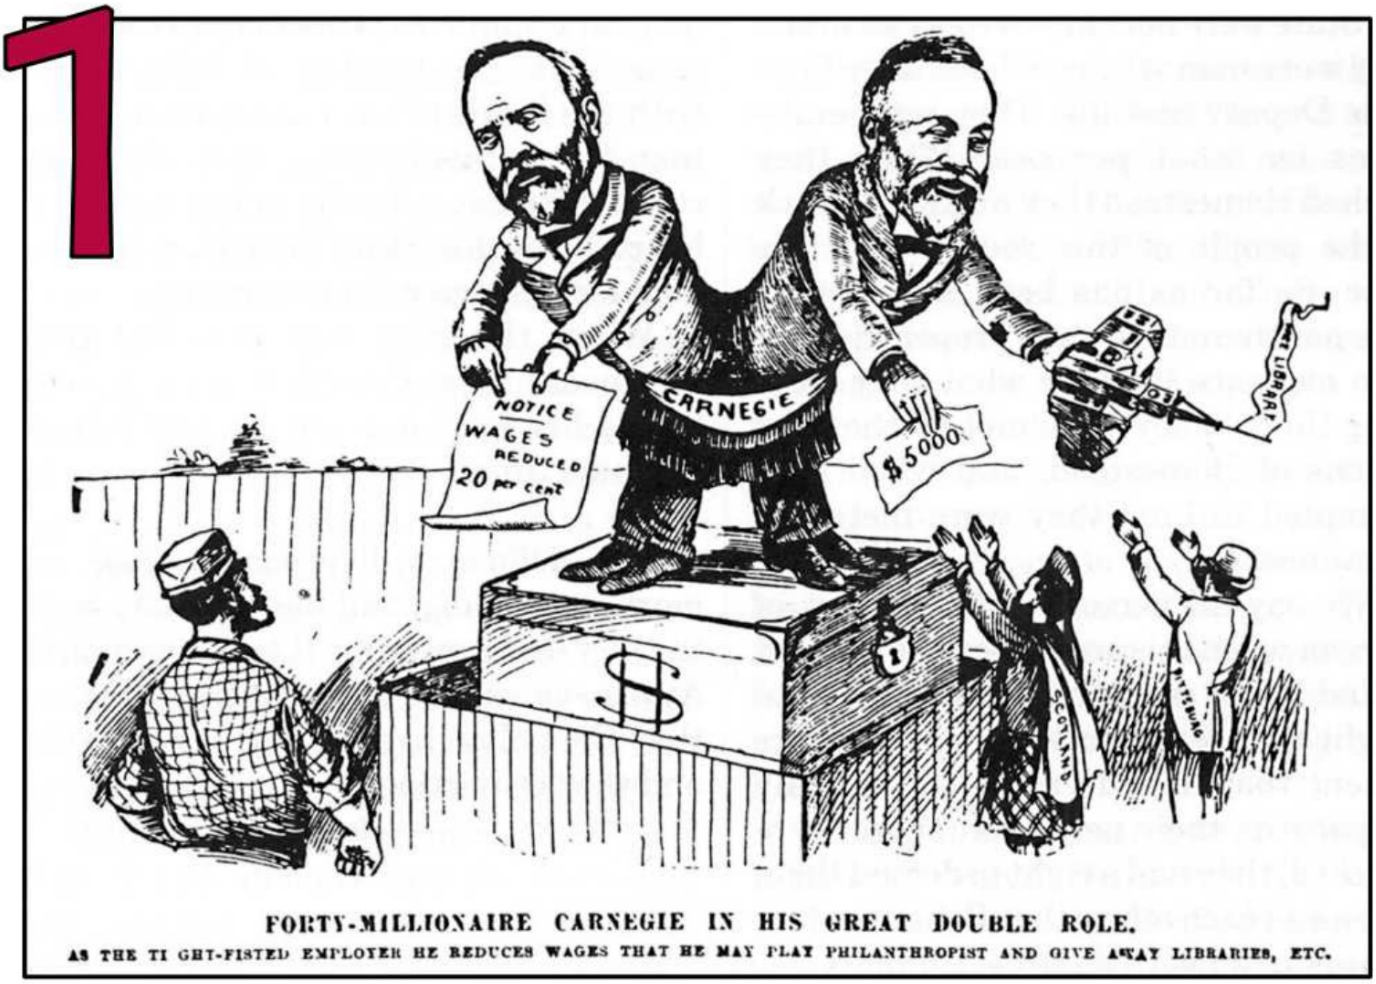
7

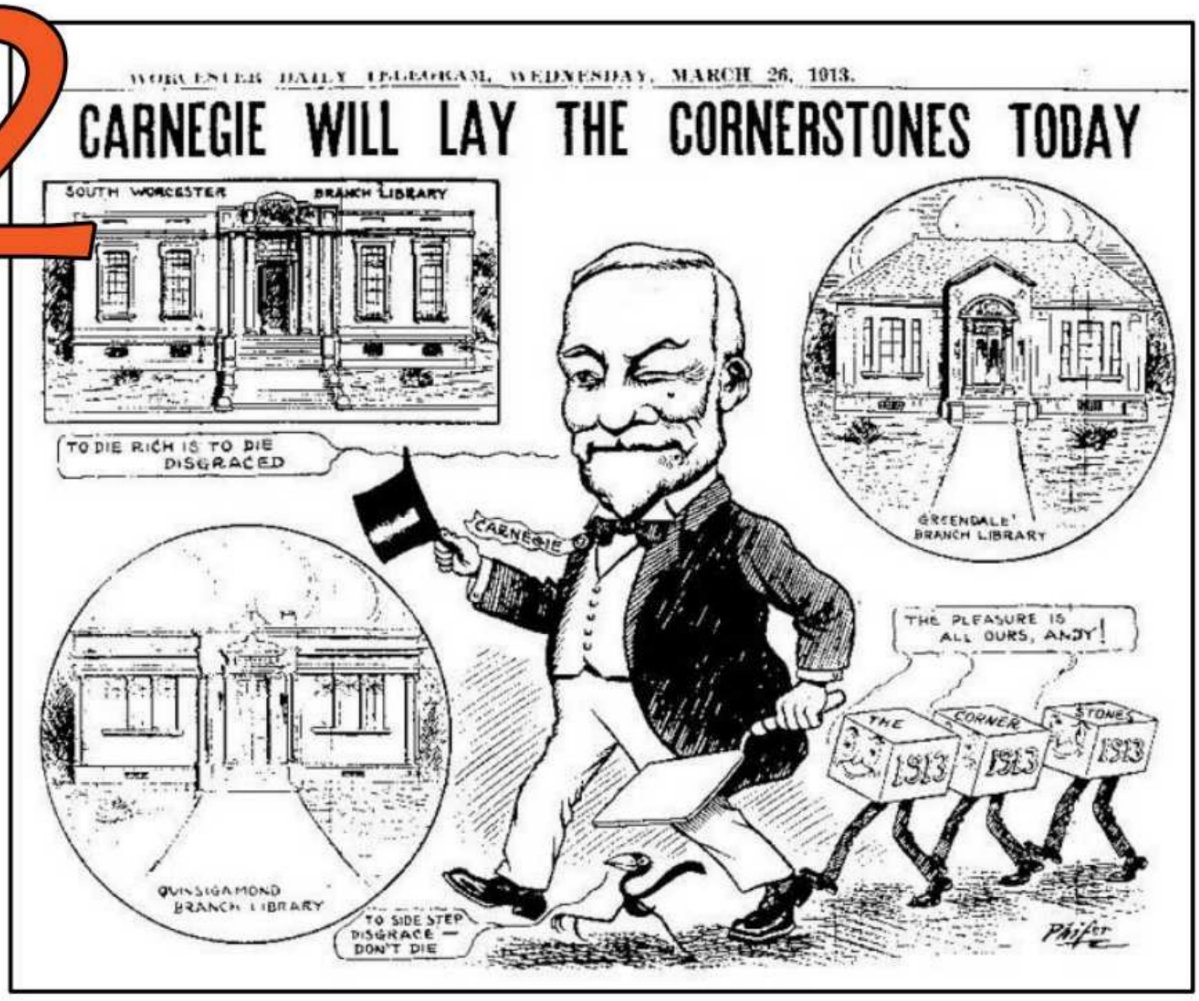


FORTY-MILLIONAIRE CARNEGIE IN HIS GREAT DOUBLE ROLE.

AS THE TI GHT-FISTED EMPLOYER HE REDUCES WAGES THAT HE MAY PLAY PHILANTHROPIST AND GIVE AWAY LIBRARIES, ETC.

"Forty-Millionaire Carnegie in his Great Double Role," The Saturday Globe, 9 July 1892.

2



WORCESTER DAILY TELEGRAM, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 26, 1913.
CARNEGIE WILL LAY THE CORNERSTONES TODAY
SOUTH WORCESTER BRANCH LIBRARY
TO DIE RICH IS TO DIE DISGRACED
CARNEGIE
GREENDALE BRANCH LIBRARY
THE PLEASURE IS ALL OURS, ANDY!
THE 1913
CORNER 1913
STONES 1913
QUINSIGAMOND BRANCH LIBRARY
TO SIDE STEP DISGRACE — DON'T DIE

"Carnegie Will Lay the Cornerstones Today," The Daily Telegram, 26 March 1913.

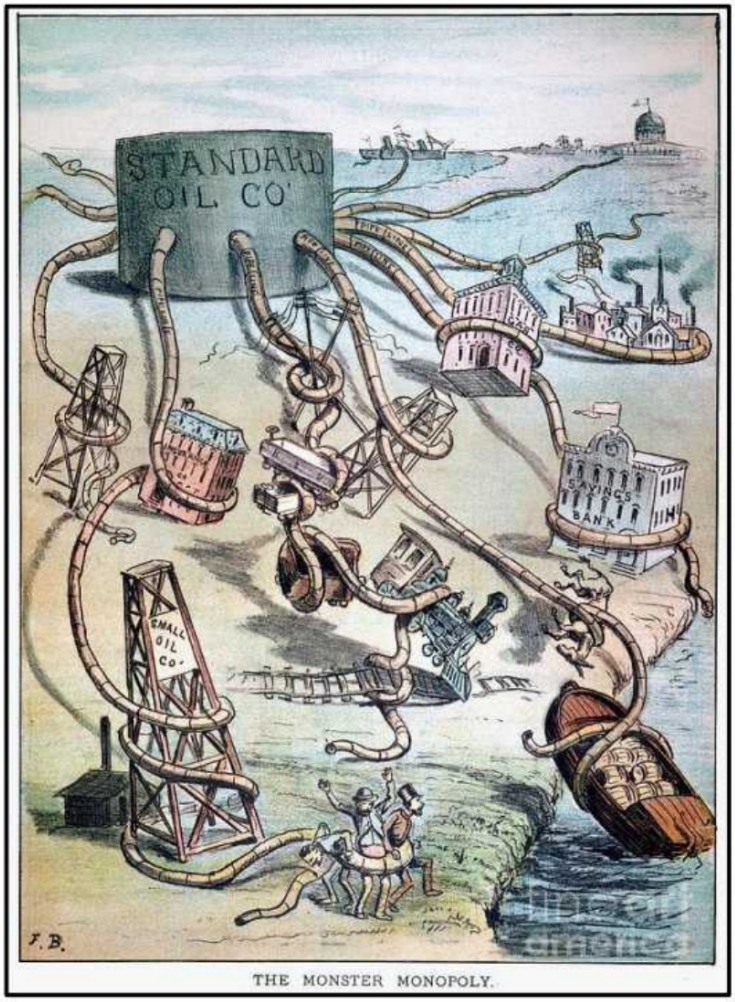
3

"Better Late Than Never," The Philadelphia Inquirer, 8 January 1903.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER.

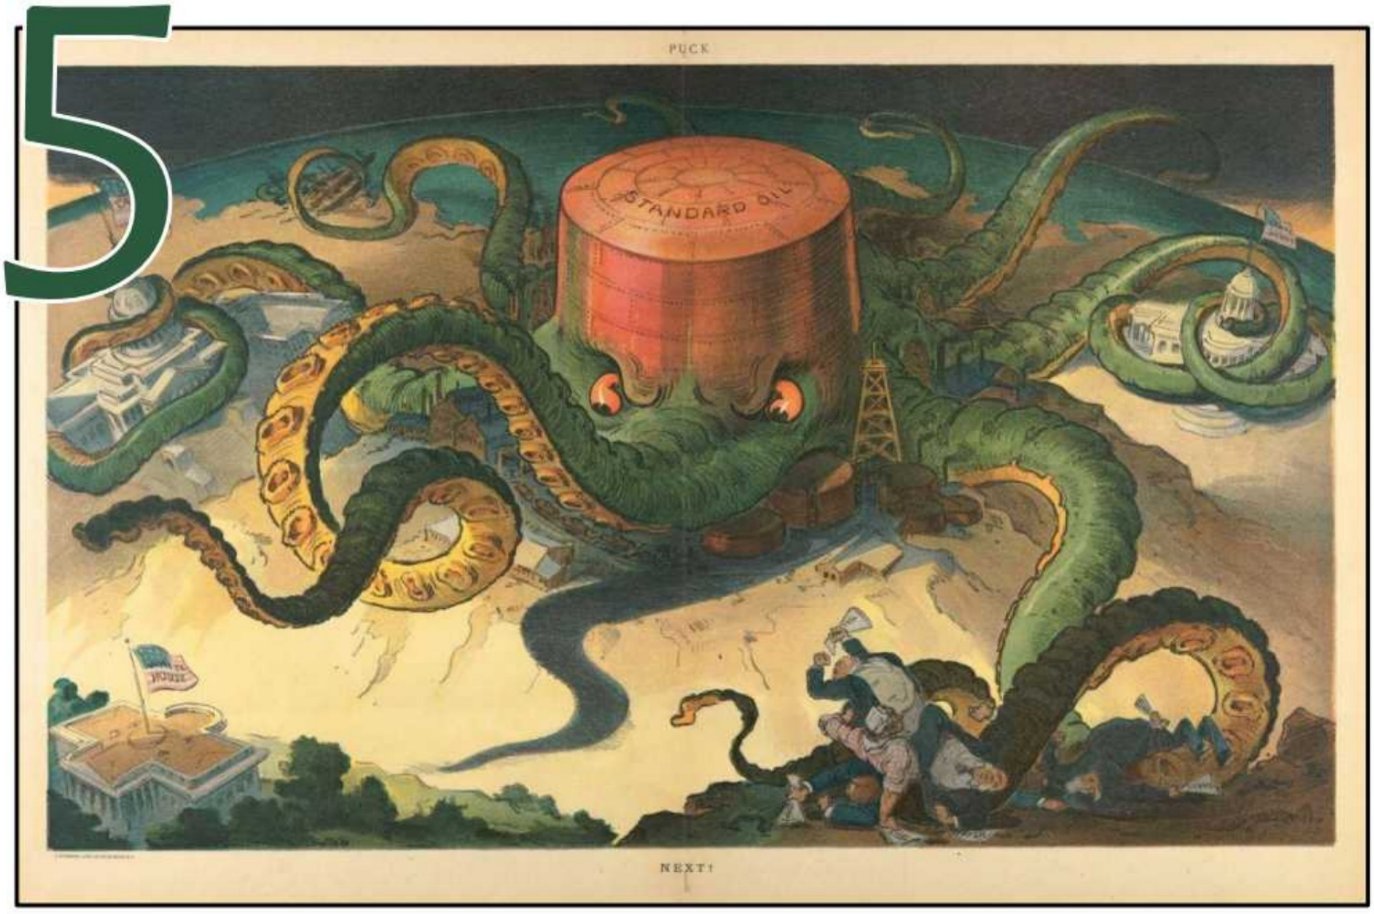
4

"The Monster Monopoly," Judge, 1884.



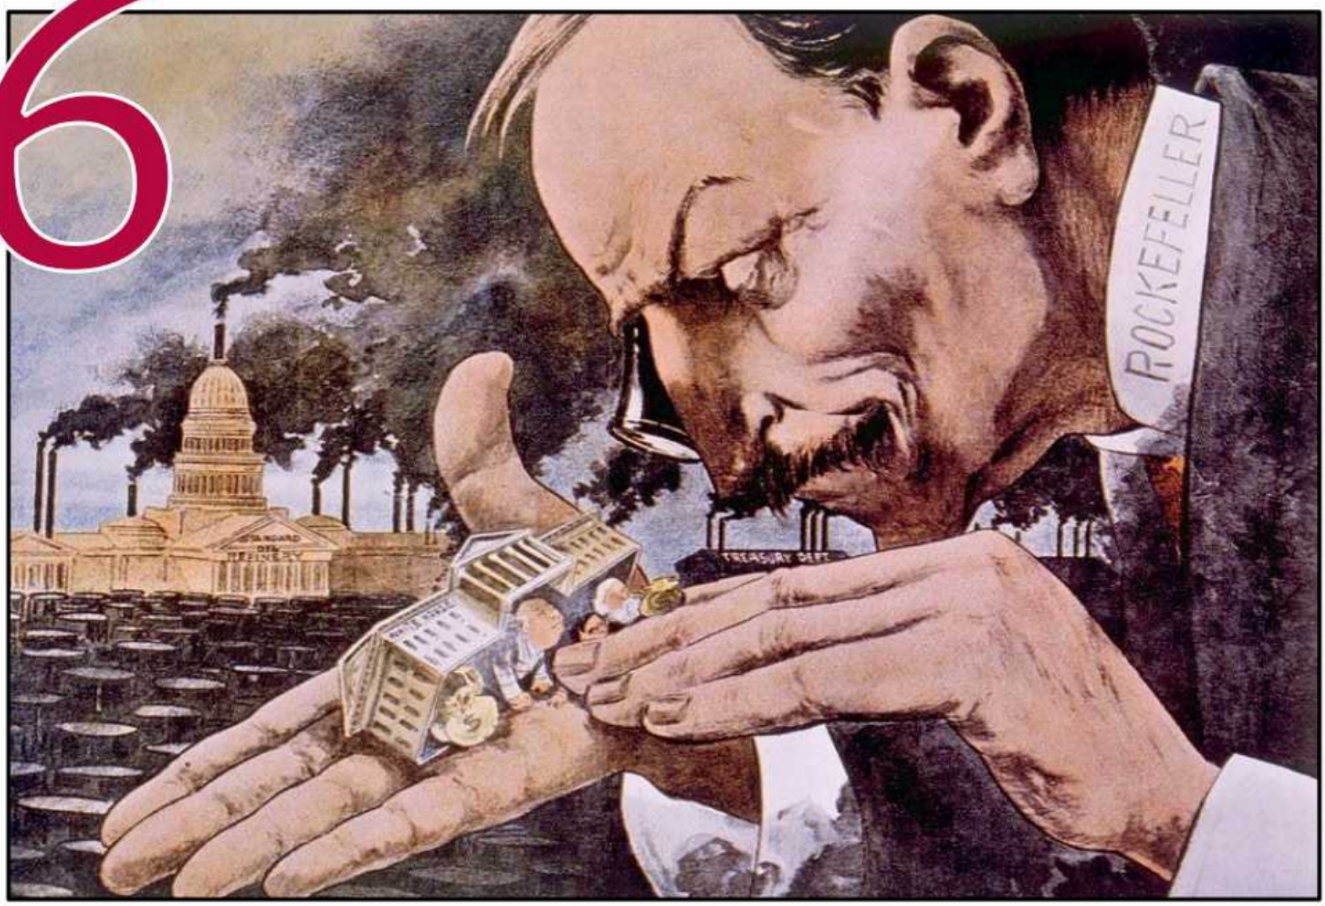
THE MONSTER MONOPOLY.

5



"Next!," Puck, 1904.

6



"The Trust Giant's Point of View. "What a funny little government," The Verdict, 1900